Kathy/Jason,

We haven't had much game-planning for this briefing. As far as I know, it's still on for 9am tomorrow. I printed out some key briefing materials this evening. Electronic copies are attached for reference (I made 4 copies of the first 3 items and just one copy of each of the CEQ-generated docs). The hard copies are on a chair in Kathy's office if anyone wants to look through them and see if they think that anything further should be added.

I'll try to get here by 8:45a tomorrow, but wanted to have this organized ahead of time.

-Carter
